DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

#23 is a large brick 2-1/2 story detached house, three bays wide and approximately four bays in depth with a two story brick "L" shaped wing 1-1/2 bays wide and five bays long with a side balcony, a two story brick, two bay square newer side extension, and a one story frame extension on the rear. All brickwork is of common bond. The front entranceway occupies the left bay with double doors of panels, top panels round arched, and a round arched transom with a moulded transom bar. All front windows are of 1/1 sash with those on the first floor round arched and segmental arched on the second story. These arches are of shaped voussoirs with bottom ends rounded  forming a scalloped design and these also head the doorway. First floor windows are protected by ornate cast iron boxed grills. Side and rear windows are of 2/2 sash with wood lintels and sills, and there is a first floor brick bay windows with 1/1 sash and segmental two row header brick arches with infills decorated with a carved radiating design. There is a four paneled door with a high, two pane transom. The attic is well lighted by two 2/2 sash windows in each gable. the front section has a moderate slope "A" frame roof of slate with rather small enclosed chimneys rising from each end, and this rests on a three string brick cornice on the front, decorated by the middle row protruding diagonally, and a two string cornice on the rear. The wing has a slight slope shed roof. This building sets on a low fieldstone foundation. The front paving is in a herringbone design. To the right is a lawn area protected by an ornate cast iron fence secured between pyramid topped brick piers and over a low wall. To the rear are lawn areas, boxwood, evergreens, an arbor, and a separate brick dependency (three seater) with a pyramid roof and four paneled door with an overlight.

LATE FEDERAL

SPECIFIC DATES

BUILDER/ARCHITECT

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

This late Federal period mansion has been well maintained over the years, probably by the original family with the last resident member now bedridden. It is an attractive asset to this block together with its gardens visible from the street.
